THE RATES OF MARCHANDIZES AS THEY ARE SET DOWNE

in the Booke of Rates for the Cuſtome and Subsidie of Poundage, and for the Cuſtome and Subsidie of Cloathes, the ſame being appointed by his Maieſtie, and Confirmed by the Lorde deputye and Councell, and ordered to be publiſhed in Print, for the direction of ſuch as it may concerne in this Kingdome of Ireland.

DVBLIN.

Printed by Iohn Franckton, Printer to the Kings moſt excellent Maieſtie. 1608.

TILE RATES
OF MARCHANDI-
ZES AS THEY ARE SET DOWNE

in the Booke of Rates for the Cullome and Subsidie of Tunnage, and for the Cullome and Subsi-die of Outwards, now being supressed by his Matie, and Continued by the Lords depuryed and Counsell, and ordered to be published in Print, for the direction of such as it may concerne in this Kingdome of Ireland.

DVBLIN
Printed by John Franckton, Printer to the Kings
most excellent Majestie. 1604.

WHereas by an Act of Parliament made in the fifteenth yeer of the raigne of King Henry the seuenth of famous memory, it was at the prayer of the Commons ordained and established, That the said King & his Heires should haue, perceiue and leuie of all and euery xx.s. worth of all manner of Marchandize and Wares brought into this land of Ireland, by any manner of person or persons, to be sould within the same Land, twelue pence, and likewise should haue, leuie and receaue of euery twenty shillings worth of all manner of Marchandize and Wares after the price that they be bought within this Land, and to bee carried out of the same, to be sould by any manner of person or persons beyond the Sea, twelue pence, as in the same Act among other things, more at large is contained.

And forasmuch as hitherto the Wares and Marchandizes out of which the said poundage or twelue pence of the pound is to be raised, haue had had no certaine values or Rates set vppon them in this Kingdome, by reason whereof the saide Poundage or twelue pence of the pound hath not been truelie and fully answered vnto the Kings most excellent Maiestie, and his Progenitors;

We haue therefore caused all the goods and Marchandizes chargeable with the said poundage either brought in, or transported out of this Kingdome, together with the seuerall kinds, qualities, numbers, weights, measures and contents of the same, and the values, prices, and Rates thereof to be particularly entred and expressed in this present Booke, containing in leaues on both sides to the entent his Maiestie may henceforth bee iustly answered of the said poundage, according to the tenor of the said Act of Parliament.

Wherefore we do hereby declare & publish his Highnes pleasure & commandment to be, That all his Maiesties Customers or Collectors of Customes or Subsidies within any Port, Hauen or Creeke of this his Highnes Realme of Ireland, for the tyme being, shall from & immediatly after notice giuen by these presents of his Highnes said pleasure, leauie and take vp to his Maiesties vse the said poundage or twelue pence vppon the pound according to the prises, values, & rates mentioned tioned and expreſſed in this Booke, & not otherwiſe, as they and euery of them will aunſwere for the contrary, at their perills.

Willing further, and hereby commaunding his Maieſties Threſurer & Barons of the Eſchecquer of this Realme, and the ſaid Comptroullers and Surueyors for the tyme being, within anie Port, Hauen, or Creeke of this Realme of Ireland, and euerie of them, to charge the ſaid Collectors and Cuſtomers & euery of them, to ſee his Highnes duely aunſwered of the ſaid poundage, according to the values, prices, and Rates, mentioned in this Booke, and none otherwiſe. Given at his Maieſties Caſtle of Dublin the xxiij day of Iune. 1608.

* *

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

AN ABSTRACTE OF THE RATES OF THE MOST VSuall Commodities of Ireland, ſet according to their valewes and worth, vpon view of a Coppie of the ſaide Rates receiued from thence, conferred by vs with the Booke of Rates for the Commodities of England, and is done by Order from the Lords and others of his Maieſties moſt Honourable Priuie Councell of England.

A

Annifeeds the C. weight, cont. fiue ſcore and twelue pound. — xxx. s.

Allome the C. weight, cont. 112. pound — xx. s.

B

Bacon the Flitch, — ii. s. vi. d.

Battery or Kettels the C. weight cont. one hundred & twelue pound. — iii. l.

Braſſe Pottes the C. weight. — iii. l.

Beere the Tunne, — xl. s.

Buffins, Moccadoes, Grogarines, and all ſuch Stuffes, as in England. ——— }

Butter the Barrell, ——— i.l. vi.s.viii. d.

C

Cappes, { Of Veluet the doſen ——— i.l.x.s.
{ Of Cloath the doſen ——— i.l.

Chequers of ſundrie colours, the Packe cont. iiii. C. yeards, vi. ſcore to the C. } viii. l.

Cheeſe the C. weight, cont. 112. pound. vi.s.viii.d

Coles vocat. Sea-coles, the Chaulder, ——— x.s.

Colme to burne Lyme the chaulder, vi.s. viii.d

Corne and Graine of all ſorts, to pay as in England, that is, Wheate the Quarter, cont. eight Buſhels, containing viii. gallons to the Buſhel, ——— } ii.s.

And euery Quarter of other Graine, as Rye, Barly, Malt, Oates, Beanes & Peaſe, to pay ——— } xvi. d.

F

Fiſhe,

Fiſh { Herrings white and full the Barrell, x.s.
Salmon the Tunne, ——— vi.l.
All other ſorts of Fiſh to be rated as in England. ———

Furres, { Martron skinnes the doſen —— ii.l.
Otter skins the doſen —— i.l.
Foxe skinnes the doſen —— x.s
All other ſorts as in England. ———

G

Glaſſes of all ſortes, as in England. ———

H

Hides of Oxe or Cowe the peece —— v.s
Hawkes of all ſortes, as in England. ———
Honney the Tunne, as in England. ———
Hoppes the C. weight, containing 112. pound i.l.
Horſes { Into England, the Horſe xiii.l.vi.s.viii.d
Into any other forraine part, the peece ——— } xx.l. x.s

I

Iron the Tunne, ——— vii.l.

L

Leade the Fodder or Tunne, ——— vi.l.xiii.s.iiii.d.

M

Manteling the Packe, cont. iiii. C. yeards, 120. to the hundred. } ——— xii. l.

Manteling or Frizes the yeard. ——— vi.d

Mantells { Of the beſt ſort the peece ——— xiii.s. iiii.d
Of the worſt ſort the peece, ——— vi.s.viii.d

O

Oyle of all ſortes, as in England, ———

P

Pewter the C. weight cont. 112. pound ——— iii. l.

Petticotes of Cotten the doſen ——— ii.l.

Rugges

R

Rugges for Beds. { THe beſt, ——— i. l.
All other ſortes the peece —— x. s
Blanketting Rugges the peece, —— v. s

S

SAckecloath the peece, containing 15 yeards, i. l.
Saffron the pound, ——— i. l.
Salte, { Spaniſh the Wey, cont. 40. Buſhels, ——— } i. l. vi. s. viii. d.
French the Wey, cont. 40. Buſhells —— xx, s, white the wey cõ. 40. Buſhels i. l. vi. s. viii. d
Silkes of all ſorts as in England, ———
Soape the Firkine ——— x. s.
Soape Aſhes the C. weight ——— iii. s. iiii. d.
Spices and Drugges of all ſorts, as in England. ——
Slates the thouſand ——— vi. s. viii. d
Small Wares of all ſortes, as in England. ———
Skinnes, { Lambe skinnes the C. cont. 120, white or blacke ——— } —— x, s, Mortkines rawe the C. cont 120 ——— vi. s. viii. d.

T

TAllow & Tallow Candles the C. weight, xx. s.

Timber
- The Tunne in great & ſmall pecces — vi.s.viii.d
- Pipe ſtaues the M. cont. ten C. — v.l.
- 120 to the C. —
- Hogſhead-ſtaues the thouſand, — xl.s.
- Barrell Boords the thouſand — xxx.s.
- Inche Boords the C. foote, cont. 120. — iii.s. iiii.d
- Two Inche Boords the like C. foote — vi.s.viii.d.
- Three Inche Boords or Planckes the like C. foote — x. s.
- Foure Inche Planckes the like C. foote — xiii.s. iiii.d.

Thread Blacke or Browne the Boult — x.s

All other ſorts of Thread as in England —

Tynne the C. weight, cont. 112. pound liii.s. iiii.d

W

WAxe the C. weight, cont. 112. pound. iiii.l.

Wines of all ſorts, for Cuſtome and Subſidie, as in England —

Woole of all ſortes, the Stone — iiii.s.

Woollen

Wollen cloath, and all Woollen Stuffes whatſoeuer, as in England _____

YArne vocat. Iriſh Yarne, the hundred weight cont. 112. pound _____ iii.l. vi.s.viii.d

All other commodities which ſhall be either brought into or ſhipped forth of the Realme of Ireland, not being herein mentioned & rated, ſhalbe valued as in the Booke of Rates made for the valuation of Marchandizes in England, & ſhal paye cuſtome and Subſidie according to the ſame.

And all other cõmodities whirh are not mentioned herein, nor in the ſaid Booke of Rates for England, ſhal be valued according to their worth: and if the ſame be to be ſhipped forth, then to bee valued as the ſame coſt in that Kingdome, and if the ſame ſhall be brought in, then to be valued as it coſt at the place from whence the ſame was brought.

All herein contained, is to be vnderſtood Engliſh money.